The Never-ending FAX of Life TRICK From Gentlemen’s Quarterly

Ah, the Never-Ending FAX of Life Trick, a classic! It's like the never-ending card, but instead of a delightful surprise, it's just more paperwork. Imagine sending a fax that just keeps printing, page after page, until the recipient wonders if they've stumbled into some bureaucratic Twilight Zone. It's the prank that office legends are made of, where the only thing endless is the line at the shredder and the sighs of the poor soul who thought they were done with the 90s. But don't worry, it's all in good fun—just make sure you're not sending it to your boss on a busy Monday!
